What changes has America seen since women gained the right to vote?

What work remains to be done?

How did women from this region contribute to passage of the 19th Amendment a century ago?

These and other questions will be discussed during this kick-off event of a year-long centennial celebration of the ratification of the 19th Amendment. Hosted by the US Forest Service and the Pike County League of Women Voters, with support from the Grey Towers Heritage Association, the presentation will take a look at the work, point of view, and effect of Cornelia Pinchot on the suffrage movement and other progressive causes.

A brief historical program will be followed by Guest Speaker Congressman Matthew Cartwright and a moderated panel discussion featuring:

Siobhan "Sam" Bennett:

Chief Strategic Officer and Senior Vice President, Legal Momentum – The Women's Defense and Education Fund

Eolwyn Corby:

Vision 2020 Program Manager, Institute for Women's Health and Leadership at Drexel University College of Medicine

Tameko Patterson-Winfield:

President, Greater Pocono Section of the National Council of Negro Women

Mary Zimmerman:

Immediate Past President of the Lewisburg League of Women Voters, as well as lecturer on women's history

Following a Q&A session, light refreshments will be served and a special exhibit dedicated to Cornelia Pinchot and her involvement with the suffrage movement will be available for viewing.
